

SANTA FE SAFARI

Celebrate Studio Glass Art in New Mexico Tour with an Expert private Curator Gallery, Artist Studio and Private Collection Visits Santa Fe and Albuquerque

'Potential Encounter' by Lucy Lyon

From the Albuquerque Airport, we will lunch and visit with contemporary art dealers, artists' studios and continue to Santa Fe to register at our hotel and enjoy a private dinner at one of the galleries on Canyon Road.

After breakfast on Saturday, we will go to the Railyard Art District, SITE Santa Fe, Baca Street studios for demonstrations by maestro artists, board our deluxe transportation for Tesuque Glassworks and the Shidoni Bronze Foundry, tour a private art collection and dine at Casa de Vidrio.

On Sunday, we will visit artists' studios and showroom, lunch at the Historic Plaza in Santa Fe, tour private collections of Native American art, shop at selected galleries, enjoy wine and cheese at the hotel, board our bus for Upper Canyon Road and dine with New Mexico artists.

After breakfast on Monday, we will visit more private art collections and go on a docent led tour of the International Folk Art Museum, lunch and shop at the galleries on Lincoln and West Palace Avenues, shop to purchase items from the Governor's Palace portal artists, enjoy wine and cheese with art historians, select fine art on Lower Canyon Road and dine in smaller groups at selected regional restaurants in Santa Fe.

After breakfast on Tuesday, we will enjoy a docent lead tour at the Georgia O'Keeffe Museum and return to the hotel for our departure to the Albuquerque Airport.

For reservation information, please contact registrar at Bridges to Santa Fe at registrar@BridgestoSantaFe.com .

Visit New Mexico!

